Meal Plan FAQ

What are Flex Dollars?

Flex Dollars are student dollars that can be used to purchase meals, snacks, and drinks at any dining location on campus.

Will dining services accommodate my special dietary needs?

For personalized support, please don't hesitate to speak with a manager or contact us at MCA93@pitt.edu.

Are there any other places to eat on campus besides the dining room?

Get ready to explore some seriously delicious spots on campus! Craving a fresh, made-to-order meal or a some chips and queso? Then head straight to The Commons Cafe, where you can find everything from hot and cold handhelds, and delicious munchies, plus late-night eats all week long! And yes, QDOBA® is right there too!

Need a quick pick-me-up while studying? The Hanley Library Café, located within the Hanley Library, offers all your favorite Starbucks® drinks and a selection of convenient Chef Fresh snacks for a quick and easy refuel. Or, if you're looking for a welcoming space to relax and recharge, visit the Marilyn Horne Cafe. Enjoy a warm atmosphere with healthy snack choices and another convenient Starbucks® location for your handcrafted beverages.

Is mobile ordering available?

Yes mobile ordering is available on campus allowing you to use your meal plan while saving time and skipping the lines at The Commons Cafe and QDOBA when you download the Transact app. Download it now and register with your Pitt Passport!

What is Send a Smile?

Treat your favorite Pitt student to something special! With our Send a Smile program, you can choose from house-baked cookies, brownies, cupcakes, and more, plus add a balloon and card. Explore the sweet possibilities at metzupb.com.
